What we do:

- Employment legislation and practice:
 - Information and advice in a UK HE context
- Reward and Pensions
 - Negotiations (national level) on pay
 - Intelligence about what HEIs are doing
 - Representation and consultation
- Seminars and training
- Research and surveys
- Lobbying and representation

UK Higher Education: some context

- 500,000 staff employed in HEIs
- 168 HEIs
Range of UCEA members:
 - University of Manchester – 11,700 staff
 - Bishop Grosseteste - 260 staff
- Funding sources
 - Public sources
 - Students' fees
 - Range of dependence on state

National pay bargaining

- The HE unions
- A strong tradition
- Prone to disputes?
- A journey: where are we going?

From 2001...

- many tables
- many pay scales
- Pressures for change:
 - European Equal Pay legislation
 - Desire for equity and transparency
 - Ability to respond to market pressures
 - Ability to reward high performance
 - Remove unhelpful (unlawful) demarcations

2004 Framework Agreement

- All-HE unions agreement
- Commitment to local delivery through partnership
- A national single pay spine
- Locally (HEI) determined common grades
- Underpinned by job evaluation in each HEI
- Some core expectations:
 - Schemes for determining / reviewing market pay
 - Schemes for rewarding contribution
 - Some progression on experience (for all grades)
 - Derivation of hourly rates
- Implementation by August 2006

The single pay spine in HE

And since then...

- 134 HEIs completed to date (some backdating)
- Will be 168 different pay and grading schemes
- Harmonisation of other conditions

Legacy:

- Resource intensive processes
- Distraction
- Turbulence / some discontent (“red circles”)
- High cost to employers
- National vs. local deals
- Improvements for lowest grades

2006-09 pay deal

- Followed a dispute led by academic union(s)
- 3 year deal – some respite – at least 13.1%
- HE Finance & Pay Data Review (reports autumn 2008)
- Commitment to reform national machinery (JNCHES):
 - Streamlined
 - Single table
 - A timetable
 - Disputes procedure

Where HEI employers are now

- Single table seen as a necessity
 - Attracted to “something for something” bargaining
 - Strong employee relations embedded (in the main)
 - Conditions a local issue – not for national table
 - Concern over pay costs, including pensions
 - Funding diversity concerns
 - Regional employment market concerns
 - 20% of academic staff are “off SPS”
- Majority want collective (national) bargaining for SPS – at least short- to medium-term
 - Some may be ready for (and prefer) local bargaining
 - Caveat is required reforms to JNCHES

Where unions are now?

- All committed to wanting national bargaining (for present)
- All unions, except UCU, signed up to reforms
- UCU position right now...a vote to reject by 10,000 members
- What next?
- Employers and unions having to prepare for a variety of scenarios

Paris or London?
